

FRIENDS OF THE GAYS
MILLS PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Friends of the Gays Mills Public Library (FOGMPL) was founded in 2002 by area citizens interested in creating a strong and responsive library community.

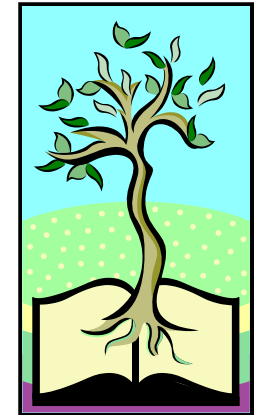

The mission of FOGMPL is to support, improve and promote services and resources at the library; to improve those resources and services by strengthening our financial base and to promote cultural literacy.

GOALS & ACTIVITIES

The Friends of the Gays Mills Public Library (FOGMPL) are members who support the library through volunteerism, fundraising and grant writing to assist the library in acquiring special library materials, equipment, and programming.

Some goals of the FOGMPL include

- Invigorate and expand library programs for all ages.
- Promote cultural literacy through book discussion groups, poetry readings, author talks.
- Provide volunteer assistance at the library.
- Seek out funds to further the mission of the FOGMPL and enhance the library for the communities we serve.
